A Message From the President

"Lives change @ your library"

National Library Week April 13-19 2014, sponsored by the American Library Association, features two themes: "Lives change @ your library", and "Communities matter @ your library". It is the annual time to recognize the value of libraries who strive to provide resources for communities, campuses and schools. Carmel Public Library offers a wide range of educational and cultural programs connecting diverse users of multiple generations. There is also a focus on providing collections that are broad in scope and depth in a wide range of formats.

Today's libraries can help you and your family discover a new and exciting world: computer resources...homework help...bilingual resources... neutral financial information...or a recommendation
on the best books and ebooks to expand your library.
Open the door to change, visit your library!

This issue of WINDOW highlights those collections and the excellent librarians dedicated to meeting our community's needs. The Carmel Public Library Foundation and the generosity of our donors are working together to ensure that the library functions as the cultural, intellectual and informational heart of Carmel. Thank you for your support. 🌀

New & interesting at the library!

It's getting HOT in Carmel Public Library! No, not because of the amazing spring time weather – the librarians are cooking up NEW collections and resources for you to enjoy!

What's NEW in Reference? The reference staff is always scouting out interesting e-resources for our patrons. The latest one is Indieflix, providing film festival movies to view on your computer or tablet, using your library card. Find it featured on our reference page – www.hm-lib.org/reference/.

Reference librarian, Wendy Good, is also launching a community book club, which meets on the last Tuesday of every month from 6-7:30 pm in the Local History Room.

Librarian Renee Gimelli has created a Pinterest page for the library – www.pinterest.com/hlibrary/ – featuring books and movies set in Carmel, Carmel authors, Carmel history, and much more. Check it out and call the reference desk for details: (831) 624-7323.

What's NEW in the Children's Library? A beautiful new picture book, The Day the Crayons Quit by Daywalt. For fiction readers, The Warriors series by Erin Hunter – an extremely popular series. For middle school readers, we have some new books on fashion that are popular, including Matched by Condie. We have lots of new board books – about the alphabet, numbers and opposites. We also have some nice new biographies – featuring Audrey Hepburn, Albert Einstein, Teddy Roosevelt. For younger children we have a biography of a band called "One Direction" that is never on the shelf because it's so popular.

What's hot in the Adult Section: At the circulation desk we are seeing lots of interest in new books by favorite authors: Donna Tartt, The Goldfinch; Sue Monk Kidd, The Invention of Wings; Amy Tan, The Valley of Amazement; David Baldacci, King and Maxwell. In nonfiction people are talking about The Monuments Men by Robert M. Edsel and Five Days at Memorial by Sheri Fink. The hot new DVD titles are Downton Abbey Season 4, Breaking Bad Final Season, Sherlock Season 3. Also, people are discovering our great collection of "Euro dramas" such as Borgen (Danish), Wallander (British, set in Sweden), Detective Montalbano (Italian), Commissario Brunetti (German, filmed in Venice).
