A Message From the President

THE POWER OF COLLABORATION

The partnership that exists between Carmel Public Library Foundation, City of Carmel, and Carmel Public Library is an example of public-private partnerships that have been utilized by effective municipal governments to deliver superior services at reduced costs, increase investment in public infrastructure, and reduce public sector risk during times of economic hardship.

Public-private partnerships exist in a variety of different forms, but generally involve collaboration between a public entity and a private sector entity that helps provide a public service and assumes certain financial responsibilities for its sustainability.

The Library Foundation's advocacy on behalf of Carmel Public Library has followed this model for over 20 years. The City of Carmel owns the Library buildings and pays the utilities and the Library salaries. The Foundation raises charitable donations from people like you to purchase all of the books, digital collections, materials, equipment and services, as well as funds for part-time staff. We fund quality, well-attended public programs featuring accomplished authors and local historians.

Through our wonderful public-private relationship with the City of Carmel we continue to make Carmel Library a focal point for culture in the city by constantly messaging to the community that the Library is a vital part of Carmel. The public support we have is fabulous, and it enables us to keep presenting enjoyable programs.

Our mission has remained consistent: to keep the Library open, thriving and relevant; to advance knowledge and to inspire lifelong learning; and to strengthen the spirit of community in Carmel. We look forward to continually delivering on this promise. ■

Donor Salute

Donor Salute, held Sunday, March 4, in the reading room of the Main Library, was a beautiful and memorable event. The annual event recognized donors who made gifts of $100 or more to the Annual

Campaign over the year. "What a wonderful community gathering and special opportunity to thank our benefactors who truly believe in the Library," commented Event Chair Susanne Holm. ■

Marx Brothers and Carmel Library

"I refuse to join any club that would have me as a member."

—A Groucho Marx quip of many years ago.

Ah, come on, Groucho, give us a break.

This is the Window's annual membership issue. Well, you can't mistake that — just take a look at the next nine pages. You'll no doubt find your name there in one category or another. You won't find Groucho's name on any of the lists. Not his fault—he died 35 years ago.

It may surprise some of our donors, but it seems many readers look forward to this issue. We hear it every year. Why, I ask myself? Well, for one thing, people, many people, like to see their names in print. Another is that our members take pride in supporting the Carmel Public Library Foundation. And then there could be those (this is just conjecture, mind you) who scan the lists to see what some of their friends and neighbors have given. "Harry, I had no idea the Billingsley's had that kind of money." Or, "Harry, if the Billingsley's have donated that much then so must we."

At CPLF we're just happy for and grateful to the Billingsley's and every other donor's name appearing in these pages, for these are our friends and supporters, people who care about this Library Foundation and want to feel a part of the continuing success of Carmel Library. Every donor is important to us; every contribution, large and small, is welcomed and appreciated. We accept your contributions as gifts to our Library... our village... and the greater community.

Groucho Marx was a funny man. And a smart man and a literate man. It would certainly be surprising if he wouldn't want to be a member of this club. Harpo, Chico, Gummo, and Zeppo, too. 📖

—TOM PARKS

Tom Parks has been an invaluable CPLF board director and contributing editor of the Window for many years. His term rotates to an end this summer, but his many contributions and connections to the community endure. Thank you, Tom, for your spirited service and memorable sense of humor!

Planned Gifts with Enduring Impact

We are pleased to acknowledge significant planned gifts that were made to the Library Foundation this year by devoted Carmel Library patrons and members of our community. These gifts represent a substantial resource that will ensure the long-term stable financial future of your Library.

Marjorie Fisher's planned gift to the endowment ensures fiscal stability for the Carmel Library.

Ruth Pardoll was an avid Carmel Library user. Her bequest will benefit the Outreach Program.

Major Gifts of Significance

Thank you Peggy & Jack Baskin for your tremendous gift to support programs and services for families and teens.

Commemorative Gifts

Commemorative giving is a way to honor and remember special individuals. The Carmel Public Library Foundation is honored by our donors whose thoughtful gifts were made to recognize these friends. This year, we recognize several tribute gifts for friends who have been deeply committed to the Carmel Library over many years.

Samuel "Beau" Breck, a beloved volunteer and friend

Rosemary Carter, a dedicated and generous volunteer

Jean Draper, a pillar in our community

Dorothy Newton, a founding board director and Carmel Library advocate

Reception for Sterling Circle Planned Giving Donors

In honor of some of the Carmel Public Library Foundation's most committed and generous supporters, Sterling Circle donors were invited to an elegant afternoon reception held at the Park Branch Library on Sunday, April 29. The event, enjoyed by all, was highlighted by entertaining author and essayist, Brad Herzog. The Sterling Circle, named after famed Carmel poet George Sterling, honors a distinguished group of donors who benefit the Carmel Library with gifts made in their wills or estate plans. The plaque honoring Sterling Circle donors hangs in the lobby at Park Branch.

DREAM BIG READ!

Summer Reading Programs

For Adults & Children

Six Weeks of Reading Fun — June 4 through July 14, 2012

Our children's librarians have a terrific Summer Reading Program planned for young readers of all ages with prizes, entertainment, story times, crafts, music and, of course, good books and events! It's a great way for children to improve reading skills over the summer and to inspire the love of reading! For a list of upcoming events, see Programs, page 2.

The Adult Summer Reading Program is back by popular demand! Try a new genre, join a book discussion, write a book review and win prizes.

Registration for both Summer Reading Programs begins on June 4 by going to the Circulation Desks and signing up!

For more information, call the Carmel Library at (831)

624-4629 (adult services) or (831) 624-4664 (youth services). Or you can go to the Library web site at www.hm-lib.org for more information!

The Foundation's Mission is to provide vital funds for Harrison Memorial Library that will ensure free library service in perpetuity. Every book, CD, DVD, all of the services, resources, equipment, and programs are funded by charitable dollars.
