A lifeline to Everything

YOUR SUPPORT KEEPS OUR LIBRARY OPEN, RELEVANT AND THRIVING!

CARMEL PUBLIC LIBRARY

A lifeline to Learning

FROM LEARNING TO READ...
TO READING TO LEARN

Our reading programs and online books and films help children develop necessary skills such as vocabulary, phonics, language and numeracy.

Adults can dive into our extensive databases and book collections, business and consumer information, genealogy resources, language instruction and more.

lifeline to our Community

Community Night with the Library

An eclectic array of free, interesting, educational and high quality public programs that enrich our lives and bring us together.

This year come learn about life under the Carmel sea, celebrate our intriguing local history, meet the stars in space and much more!

OUR COMMUNITY
IN CONVERSATION

Participate in a Fireside Chat – an opportunity for lively public discourse on thought-provoking subjects.

Henry Meade Williams Local History Lecture Series

Sponsored by the Frank & Eva Buck Foundation and Robert & Lacy Buck. This popular series highlights our unique local history from fact to fiction.

lifeline to an Enriching Environment

1 LIBRARY, 2 LOCATIONS: CONNECT AND GROW ONLINE AND IN PERSON

The Harrison Memorial Library – where teens and adults can meet or read in a safe and friendly environment and enjoy a unique forum for social networking, book clubs and learning groups.

Newly opened! The Gathering Place is a free special meeting place within Harrison Memorial Library location – open to book clubs, nonprofit meetings, student group learning and more!

The Park Branch dedicated to children and families to spend time together, and read and participate in children's programs. A place to make new friends and build community.

The Henry Meade Local History Room is inside the Park Branch location and archives historically significant items from the history of Carmel.

EXPLORE!

The Gathering Place, made possible by the generosity of Lacy Williams Buck and Carmel Public Library Foundation

lifeline adapting with you

ONLINE AND IN PERSON – THE LIBRARY ADAPTS TO YOUR NEEDS.

Your Librarians provide uninterrupted library services – from Curbside Pick-Up to erecting an Outdoor Library to the part-time re-opening of two physical buildings, Harrison Memorial Library and the Park Branch location.
