You want it? We got it! Because you give

CARMEL PUBLIC LIBRARY FOUNDATION
P.O. Box 2642
Carmel, CA 93922-2642

Carmel Public Library Foundation (CPLF) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

Austin Brown
President
Carol Lee Holland
Executive Director
Valera Lyles
Vice President
Jon & Jenice Schultheis
Treasurer

Get inspired—acquire new knowledge! FREE Community Night Programs
With best selling authors, artists, scholars, and more...

Download FREE eBooks, Audiobooks, TV shows, Movies, Music & Magazines & More

Enrich & Engage - Fun for Kids! Children’s Library & Teen Room
Reading programs, art projects, storytimes, homework help and much more.

Discover Carmel History
Archives of Carmel and regional California history

Learn a Language for FREE – Online with the acclaimed Rosetta Stone and MANGO Languages

"Trace Your Roots"
Genealogy Resources, Discover Your Ancestry

Sharpen Your Skills!
High school services, test prep and practice exams for SAT and ACT

Get ready! College Services
Find rankings, prepare for tests, apply to FASFA, search for scholarships, financial aid and MORE.

Get it! and more… at your Carmel Public Library
www.hm-lib.org
www.carmelpubliclibraryfoundation.org

CARMEL PUBLIC LIBRARY
At the Sunset Center
A benefit for Carmel Public Library Foundation

A Message From the President

Did You Know?
The Carmel Public Library Foundation has a new Executive Director! I am so pleased to introduce Alexandra Fallon, who brings rich professional experience, entrepreneurship, and a passion for the Carmel Public Library to her new role. I could go on and on about why we are so excited that Alexandra has joined the Foundation – but it might be more fun if you simply opened this newsletter to see her picture and read her story.

Something for everyone.
“Perhaps no place in any community is so totally democratic as the town library. The only entrance requirement is interest.”—Lady Bird Johnson

The Carmel Public Library supports personal growth and community engagement. It connects us to each other in a pursuit of knowledge and further development. While you may already know that the Carmel Public Library is an integral part of our community, you might be surprised to learn of the vast services and programs that are offered. Whether you’re like to learn a language, study local geography, trace your ancestry, the Carmel Public Library can assist you. Engaging reading programs, art projects, and storytimes for children are also available every month at the Children’s Library. We even have a book, CD and DVD delivery service for those who are homebound. Be sure to check online at www.hm-lib.org for additional services and programs.

“What’s Cooking?”

“To find out, you need to put Wednesday, May 17th on your calendar right now! Join us for THE FOODIE EDITION at Sunset Center for a live, on stage demonstration from 3 celebrity chefs and authors, Nancy Silverton, Ruth Reichl, and Evan Kleiman. Hailing from New York and Los Angeles, our 3 diva chefs will be whipping up a culinary delight as well as some fun entertainment that you don’t want to miss. For an extra special treat, get a VIP ticket and meet our chefs in person while sipping specialty wines and tasting local food samplings at our Premier Pre-Event Party in the Bravo Room. VIP Tickets are limited so you’ll want to reserve those at the Sunset Center now: 831.620.2048.

Because of You
Library services in Carmel began with the Free Library Association in 1906, followed by the Harrison Memorial Library in 1938 and the Park Branch Library in 1989. Our library continues to be a vibrant part of Carmel, thanks to our many generous donors. Thank you for making a difference. —Heather Brebaugh
President, Carmel Public Library Foundation www.carmelpubliclibraryfoundation.org

It’s a Party!
Join us, and bring a guest for our Donor Salute reception celebrating our generous library foundation donors, whose support keeps our library relevant and thriving.
Sunday, March 5th from 3pm – 5pm
Harrison Memorial Library

Tickets on Sale Now! May 17, 2016

The Foodie Edition
A benefit for Carmel Public Library Foundation

For more information about becoming a sponsor or benefactor, call (831) 624-2811 or visit our website.
www.carmelpubliclibraryfoundation.org

Susan DuCoeur • Carol Lee Holland • Valera Lyles • Jon & Jenice Schultheis

SPONSORS & BENEFACIORS

Dow’s & Michelie Wealth Management Group
Merrill Lynch Bank of America Corporation

Thomas & Mary McCary Family Foundation
Stan & Sharon Meresman
Charles & Leslie Snorf

“Save the Date” June 11, 2017
Sterling Circle Reception
Celebrating those donors committed to supporting the Carmel Public Library Foundation through their estate plan.

Winter 2017
During an intimate walking tour of Carmel provided by my then boyfriend, I was directed to the Harrison Memorial Library, where he pointed to the building and stated that “they” had shot scenes from Dr. Zhivago there. Of course, this was not true, but I believed him then and was even more enchanted. Over the years, I became entrenched in the local Carmel community scene, participating in intellectual discourse at the Left Bank Cafe, watching classical ballet and jazz and teens at Sunset Center, and walking with my Pomeranian through town. Later I took my family through Carmel’s secret passages and over the white sandy beaches. I met many intriguing locals and became close to those members who belonged to another time in Carmel, when the Bing Crosby tournament meant clambakes and blue blazers. This was often followed by hot cocoa at the Carmel Bakery or a walk down Ocean Avenue to the Cottage of Sweets.

When I relocated back to Carmel with my three small boys in tow, visiting the Carmel children’s library would ultimately become our Saturday tradition for six years. The boys pursued the aisles for interesting books and then would settle in, while I caught up on local news in The Carmel Courier and would sit with friends and family on the cozy back bench. This was often followed by hot coca at the Carmel Bakery or a walk down Ocean Avenue to the Cottage of Sweets.

I believe the library is the brindley of every community. It is the gateway to important resources for knowledge and higher learning. Our Carmel culture continues to be elevated by the Carmel Public Library and all of its contents, services and talented providers.

I am honored to have been chosen to serve as Executive Director for the Carmel Public Library Foundation and would like to thank my predecessor, Amy Donohue, our Board of Directors, Library Staff, Library Trustees, the City of Carmel, our valued volunteers and all of our patrons for providing such a warm welcome. I look forward to working with everyone and moving the library mission forward while stewarding this most important legacy.
You want it? We got it!
Because you give

Search our Collections We have over 80,000 titles!
Access FREE Technology Public access computers, free Wi-Fi and tech-savvy librarians to guide you.
Get Inspired – Acquire New Knowledge FREE Community Night Programs With best selling authors, artists, scholars, and more...
Download FREE eBooks, Audiobooks, TV shows, Movies, Music & Magazines & More
Enrich & Engage - Fun for Kids! Children’s Library & Teen Room Reading programs, art projects, storytimes, homework help
Discover Carmel History Archives of Carmel and regional California history
Learn a Language for FREE Online with the acclaimed Rosetta Stone and MANGO Languages
“Trace Your Roots” Genealogy Resources, Discover Your Ancestry
Sharpen Your Skills! High school services, test prep and practice exams for SAT and ACT
Get ready! College Services Find rankings, prepare for tests, apply to FAFSA, search for scholarships, financial aid and MORE...

CARMEL PUBLIC LIBRARY FOUNDATION
P.O. Box 2042
Carmel, CA 93921-2042
Carmel Public Library Foundation (CPLF) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, non-profit organization.

Save the Date June 11, 2017 Sterling Circle Reception Celebrating those donors committed to supporting the Carmel Public Library Foundation through their estate plan.

Did You Know?
The Carmel Public Library Foundation has a new Executive Director! I am so pleased to introduce Alexandra Fallon, who brings non-profit experience, entrepreneurship, and a passion for the Carmel Public Library to her new role. I could go on and on about why we are so excited that Alexandra has joined the Foundation – but it might be more fun if you simply opened this newsletter to see her picture and read her story.

“What’s Cooking?”
“To find out, you need to put Wednesday, May 17th on your calendar right now! Join us for the FOODIE EDITION at Sunset Center for a live, on stage demonstration from 3 celebrity chefs and authors, Nancy Silverton, Ruth Reichl, and Evan Kleiman. Hailing from New York and Los Angeles, our 3 diva chefs will be whipping up a culinary delight as well as some fun entertainment that you won’t want to miss. For an extra special treat, get a VIP ticket and meet our chefs in person while sipping specialty wines and tasting local food samplings at our Premier Pre-Event Party in the Bravo Room. VIP Tickets are limited so you’ll want to reserve those at the Sunset Center now: 831.620.2040.

Something for everyone.
“Perhaps no place in any community is so totally democratic as the town library. The only entrance requirement is interest.” –Lady Bird Johnson

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE
the 2017 Foodie Edition
Tickets on Sale Now! May 17, 2016
AT THE SUNSET CENTER
A benefit for Carmel Public Library Foundation

The Foodie Edition
Winter 2017
www.carmelpubliclibraryfoundation.org

A Message From the President
Heather Brebaugh
Board President

Your passion for the Carmel Public Library and your desire to help ensure a Library continues to be a vibrant part of Carmel, thanks to our many generous donors. Thank you for making a difference.

—Heather Brebaugh
President, Carmel Public Library Foundation www.carmelpubliclibraryfoundation.org

CARMEL PUBLIC LIBRARY FOUNDATION
2017
A benefit for Carmel Public Library Foundation

It’s a Party! Join us, and bring a guest for our Donor Salute reception celebrating our generous library foundation donors, whose support keeps our library relevant and thriving. Sunday, March 5th from 3pm – 5pm Harrison Memorial Library

Tickets on Sale Now! May 17, 2016
The Foodie Edition
AT THE SUNSET CENTER
A benefit for Carmel Public Library Foundation

Check inside for details!
I discovered Carmel in 1964 and obtained a General Delivery, Carmel, CA mailing address and a library card from the Harrison Memorial Library. I admired (To this day my East Coast mother doubts any mail from the Harrison Memorial Library. I had arrived.)

I was immediately enchanted by the Hablot House and smell of baked goods on every corner. The idea that Maggio could exist only a few short steps away from the magical Mission Trail was truly heaven. Ghosts of writers past surrounded me in the old Lack Jug pub, and it was becoming apparent to thinking about all of the cultural influencers who passed through or made Carmel their home like John Steinbeck, Henry Miller, Jack West, Mary Austin, Robinson Jefferson, Ray and Dylan Thomas.

During an initial walking tour of Carmel provided by the then-boyfriend, I was directed to the Harrison Memorial Library. I believe him then and was even more enchanted. Over the years, I became entrenched in the local Carmel community scene, participating in intellectual discourse at the Left Bank Cafe, teaching classical ballet and jazz to teens and adults at Sunset Center, and walking with my Pomeranian through town. Later I took my family through Carmel’s secret passages and over the white smooth sandy beaches. I met many intriguing locals and became close to those members who belonged to another time in Carmel, when the Bing Crosby tournament meant clambakes and blue blazers. I met many intriguing locals and became close to those members who belonged to another time in Carmel, when the Bing Crosby tournament meant clambakes and blue blazers.

When I relocated back to Carmel with my three small boys in tow, visiting the Carmel children’s library would ultimately become our Saturday tradition for six years. The boys perused the aisles for interesting books and then would settle in, while I caught up on local news in The Pine Cone. When I relocated back to Carmel with my three small boys in tow, visiting the Carmel children’s library would ultimately become our Saturday tradition for six years. The boys perused the aisles for interesting books and then would settle in, while I caught up on local news in The Pine Cone. corner where he pointed to the building and stated that “they” had shot scenes from DR. ZHIVAGO there. Of course, this was not true, but I believed it was then and was even more enchanted. Over the years, I became entrenched in the local Carmel community scene, participating in intellectual discourse at the Left Bank Cafe, teaching classical ballet and jazz to teens and adults at Sunset Center, and walking with my Pomeranian through town. Later I took my family through Carmel’s secret passages and over the white smooth sandy beaches. I met many intriguing locals and became close to those members who belonged to another time in Carmel, when the Bing Crosby tournament meant clambakes and blue blazers.

After the live cooking demonstration, the three will launch into an intimate panel discussion facilitated by “the fairy godmother of the LA food scene” and famed radio show host, Evan Kleiman. From the event’s fundraising efforts, the Carmel Library Foundation will receive tickets to the Foundation you will receive tickets to the event for your support of the Carmel Library Foundation. We will also acknowledge all of our individual benefactors in the Carmel Library Foundation’s Annual Report, on our website, in our printed newsletter, and on all of our social media channels.

BECOME A SPONSOR OR BENEFACENT

For your support of the Carmel Library Foundation you will receive tickets to the event and the opportunity to join the authors at The VIP pre-program reception. We will also acknowledge all of our individual benefactors in the Carmel Library Foundation’s Annual Report. We will recognize all of our individual benefactors in the Carmel Library Foundation’s Annual Report, on our website, and on all of our social media channels.

If you are 13-18, join us at the Sunset Center Ballroom on Thursday of each month from 4 to 5:30 PM. We have a blast enjoying Thursday of each month from 4 to 5:30 PM. We have a blast enjoying classroom experiences and being a community of people food together through our radio show, Good Food. As host of Good Food on KCRW since 1995, she has interviewed more than 6000 guests ranging from celebrated chefs to local farmers, enabling her to explore every aspect of food and how it intersects with human life.
An Evening with Celebrity Chefs and International Bestselling Food Writers

Nancy Silverton, Ruth Reichl, and Evan Kleiman

The Program
Join us at today’s A-list celebrity chefs, Nancy Silverton, Ruth Reichl, and Evan Kleiman take center stage. To these rare talents, food is life and life is food. Their passionate exploration into authentic and creative culinary endeavors is sure to prove to be a transformative experience for all.

During the after cooking demonstration the three will launch into an intimate panel discussion facilitated by "the fairy Godmother of the LA food scene" Evan Kleiman.

Proceeds from the evening benefit Carmel Public Library. Our Carmel culture from the magical Mission Trail was truly heaven. Ghosts of writers past surrounded me in the old Jack London pub, and it was intriguing to think about all of the cultural influencers who passed through or made Carmel their home like John Steinbeck, Henry Miller, Jack Weston, Mary Austin, Robinson Jeffers, Ray and Dylan Thomas.

With Jordan and Debra Messer, we have a variety of donation levels to suit your needs. For more information please contact Alexandra Fallon at 831.624.1366 or via direct mail postcard, advertisements, (including posters, flyers, electronic eBlasts, websites and on all benefit materials) placing of the winning authors at the VIP pre-program reception.

For your support of the Carmel Library institution on the Central Coast of California, we thank you! A panel discussion facilitated by “the fairy Godmother of the LA food scene” Evan Kleiman.

Purchase Your Tickets Now!
$65 General Admission includes program, wine tasting and food.
$175 VIP Reception includes Program, Author Meet and Greet with advanced book-signing, delicious hor d’oeuvres and fine wine.

Limited tickets available.
Purchase tickets at Sunset Center Box Office, online at www.sunsetcenter.org, or call (831) 620-2048.

Nancy Silverton
Became a chef in her freshman year. Has had the later described as an epiphany.
"I was cooking in the dorms in a stainless steel kitchen, cooking vegetarian food, and I remember this light bulb going off and thinking 'Oh wait, this is what I want to do for the rest of my life.' Silverton formally trained as a chef at Le Cordon Bleu in London, and upon graduating worked with pastry chef Teryl Brei-Kelley at Michael’s, an acclaimed restaurant in Santa Monica. Inspired to open her own restaurant, she attended Ecole Lenotre Culinary Institute in Plais, France to further her studies. She was hired by Wolfgang Puck at Spago's opening chef, and in 1986, she wrote her first cookbook, Desserts by Silverton. Until recently, she was married to her husband, chef Mark Peel, opened La Brea Bakery which garnered both profits and praise for their Artisan bread. In 1991, she won the James Beard Foundation's Outstanding Pastry Chef award. In an article on the awards, Los Angeles Times wrote that she had "not only given Los Angeles great bread, but through her work at Campbell's, she has virtually redeﬁned what dessert is." Silverton won the James Beard Foundation's Outstanding Chef Award in 2014, the Board Awards' “most prestigious honor”.

Ruth Reichl
Author of My Kitchen Year: 136 Recipes That Saved my Life, a New York Times Bestseller. In September 2015, she was Editor in Chief of Gourmet Magazine from 1999 to 2009. Before that she was Restaurant Critic at The New York Times from 1987 to 1993, and the Los Angeles Times (1984-1987) where she was also named food editor. As co-owner of The Swallow Restaurant from 1974 to 1977, she played a part in the culinary revolution that took place in Berkeley, California. In the years that followed, she served as restaurant critic for New West and California magazines. She has authored the critically acclaimed, bestselling memoirs Tender at the Bone, Comfort Me with Apricots and Sapphires, and For Rou Man, Finisch, which have been translated into 18 languages. In 2014 she published her ﬁrst novel, Delicious! My Life in the Kitchen (with Goodman) which received critical acclaim for its mixture of celebrity, food, and ﬁction. "I was cooking in the dorms in a stainless steel kitchen, cooking vegetarian food, and I remember this light bulb going off and thinking ‘Oh wait, this is what I want to do for the rest of my life.’" Silverton wrote that she had not only given Los Angeles great bread, but through her work at Campbell's, she has virtually redeﬁned what dessert is.”

Evan Kleiman
May 17, 2017 at the Sunset Center
Live Cooking Demonstration - Intimate Panel Discussion – VIP Reception – Book Sale & Signing

Meet the Celebrity Chefs and international bestselling food writers...

Exciting & Unique Recipes Come to Life!

May 17, 2017 at the Sunset Center
Live Cooking Demonstration - Intimate Panel Discussion – VIP Reception – Book Sale & Signing
Proceeds from the event benefit Carmel Public Library